Dear Friends,

Welcome to the 126th auction. It has many fascinating items that would fit nicely in your collection. Do note a nice selection of picture postcards, always a welcome addition to your collecting hobby.

The current auction also features a very good selection of Deutsche Dienstpost Ukraine [German occupation of Ukraine during World War II] covers, which are not frequently seen in other auctions.

The highlights of the sale are two original press photos of Khust – capital of Carpatho-Ukraine taken on March 17, 1939 right after its independence and occupation by Hungarian forces. These two large black and white photos are from The Baltimore Sun newspaper archives with certificates of authenticity.

In addition, this auction has also about 50 lots of local tridents, including two covers. Many of these are from C. W. Roberts' collection. Do not miss these rare treasures.

We had a wonderful gathering at our UKRAINEPEX in Chicago this November and I am looking to see you again at our Zustrich-Meet in Lehighton, PA this year.

P.S. Usual auction rules apply. Request a copy of auction rules, if interested.
